

The following is a list of just some of the many donations of time and talent Shawn Laswell freely gave to his community:

Repaired and Painted statues in the foyer of St Marys Church.

Repaired and painted a statue of Jesus at Sacred Heart Church for Father Dennis.

Assisted in the Plympton School murals.

Repaired and painted all Stations of the Cross in the garden area behind the Convent at Marist Hill. With the money the Nuns insisted on giving him he bought them gardening equipment so they could enjoy their love of their gardens.

Made donations of his artwork to various non-profits for fund raising raffles at events.

Helped to repair and paint the little white Chapel on Waltham Common.

Assisted other local artists to prepare, create and install artwork.

Enjoyed street performing at local events.

Assisted in painting over offensive graffiti and creating murals on Moody St to beautify the area in preparation for RiverFest.

Worked with students from Waltham Boys and Girls Club to prepare a public mural along the RiverWalk, encouraging other artists to join him and add their art to his efforts to beautify the area for all.

Donated record panels and other art that appear in many businesses throughout the city.

Assisted in the restoration of the original Nativity statues that used to appear in the window of Grover Cronins during the holiday season. The tableau of the scene in Bethlehem now appears at the City Hall Museum Room, which he also assisted in painting.

And many more.

Thank you Shawn.
